Treasury Department.

Office of Comptroller of the Treasury,

WASHINGTON, MARCH 28th, 1866.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "THE MINERS' NATIONAL BANK OF SALT LAKE," in the City of Great Salt Lake in the County of Great Salt Lake and Territory of Utah, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking under said Act.

Now, therefore I, Freeman Clarke, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "THE MINERS' NATIONAL BANK OF SALT LAKE," in the City of Great Salt Lake, in the County of Great Salt Lake, and Territory of Utah, is authorized to commence the business of Banking, under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of office, this Twenty-eighth day of March, 1866.

—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

I am sorry to observe a disposition on the part of the Reconstruction Committee to suppress in the pretended publication of Gen. Lee's testimony, the most important portion of that distinguished soldier's examination. I violate no confidence in giving it as follows:

Question.—What kind of shirts did you wear during the war?—Calico sometimes, and sometimes woolen. Q. You are married, are you not? A. Yes, I am.—Q. Well, state to the Committee what kind of under-clothing your wife wore during the unholy strife. A. I was not at home much of the time, and can't say. Q. Is it true that the women of the South wear Jeff. Davis' picture in their bosoms? A. I never took notice. Should not be surprised if some of them did. Q. Do you think a Freedmen's Bureau agent would be allowed to marry into a first family of Virginia? A. If a young lady belonging to a first family were willing, I suppose he could.—Q. Is there not a great aversion to codfish, as a Yankee staple of diet? A. I do not know that there is. Q. Do they like pork and beans in Virginia? A. Some people do. Q. Which side do you sleep on? A. The right side, generally. Q. Do Southern men generally continue to sleep in arms, notwithstanding the cessation of the rebellion?—A. Those who are married do, I believe. Q. Do those who are not married abstain from doing so? A. I can't say that they all do.

The Daily Union Vedette.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1866.

The Church Tithing System.

When a man joins the Mormon Church as it exists in Utah, he is required, as proof of his sincerity, to deposit to the tithing office one-tenth of all his possessions—no matter what they may be, how extensive they may be. A man with one hundred thousand dollars in money must upon his entry into fellowship give the tithing office ten thousand dollars of it. This is the first grand principle of Utah Mormonism. If the man during the year makes forty thousand dollars by a judicious investment of his remaining ninety thousand dollars he must give the tithing office four thousand dollars at the end. This is the second grand principle of Utah Mormonism.—And upon these two principles hang all the law and the profits.

These two principles apply to all kinds of property. One-tenth of all a man possesses when he joins the Church and one-tenth of his yearly gains so long as he belongs to the organization.

If a man has no money or other property, he is required to give one-tenth of his labor to the tithing office—thus he labors nine days for himself and the tenth day he gives to the Church in such manner as he may be directed. In this manner the Church claims one-tenth of every laboring man's time—one-tenth of every trade represented in the Territory—one-tenth of a man's life, talent and industry. If a man engages in farming and raises wheat, cattle, horses, sheep, etc. he must calculate what he has raised—say one hundred bushels of wheat at twenty days' labor—the tithing office demands ten bushels of that grain. Should he be idle thirty days, the tithing office claims three days from him on the ground that he may do as he pleases with twenty-seven days, but has no right to idle away the three days belonging to the Lord. If he has one hundred sheep, he must give away one-tenth of them—he must give one-tenth of the increase. If he has a cow, and the cow gives ten quarts of milk each day, the Church claims one quart. In fact, the Church tithing system penetrates the most abject abode of poverty in the Territory, and extracts from it the one-tenth—if it only amounts to one hen's egg. (See Brigham on Tithing, page 111, volume 1, Deseret News, 1850.)

Then in addition to this tithing system, exacted from the people under penalty of excommunication, if refused by them, are the Federal, Territorial, county and town taxes—a burden, all together, quite sufficient to continue any people, no matter how industrious, in comparative poverty.

The tithing system is a source of large revenue. It is reduced to a science, those who have the administration of the system manage to live well, own the finest farms, the best stock, and have the greatest number of women about their premises. It grinds down the people by its very oppressive nature and serves to build up the favored few who have the satisfaction of handling the funds.

Now what becomes of all this tithing fund? Do the people who pay it ever know? Have they ever been furnished by the tithing men with a balance sheet of the same showing how much has been received—how much has been expended and how much remains on hand? Has the tax-lien of the nation ever reached this fund? We assert, with a full knowledge of what we are writing, that since the Mormon advent into Utah, has any public statement of the condition of this fund been made to the people.

The men who pay these tithings are entitled to an exhibit of the disposition of them. Why are they not furnished with it? How is it that the people who pay these tithings are always poor, while the men who receive them are the well to do members of the community? These are pertinent questions and worthy the attention of the people.—Many of them have already asked these questions, and as a result have ceased the practice of paying one-tenth of all they have or may gain into a treasury that never publishes a statement of its condition.

California Items.

A volunteer brass band has been formed in San Francisco. The members are all discharged volunteers.....They are having heavy rains in San Francisco and Napa counties.....On June 1st and 2d C. T. They did let out of jail on condition that they leave the State.....The amount of internal revenue collected in the 5th district, in May, was $16,673 60.....The drouth took freely all over the State.

From Nevada.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

The Senate, on the 8th, passed the reconstruction Constitutional amendment—yeas 33, nays 11—and having amended it in several particulars, not heretofore reported, the following resolution was returned to the House for concurrence:

Resolved, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of several States as an amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the Legislatures aforesaid, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely, Section 1st. All persons born in or naturalized in the U. S. and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the U. S. and of the State where they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge privileges or immunities of citizens of the U. S. nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within the jurisdiction equal protection of laws. Section 2d. Representatives shall be proportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice President, for Representatives in Congress, Executive and Judicial officers, or members of Legislatures thereof is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being 21 years of age and citizens of the U. S. or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in proportion, which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens 21 years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or any State, who, having previously taken an oath as member of Congress, or as member of a State Legislature, or as Executive, or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemy. Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and annuities for service in suppressing rebellion, shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection against the United States, or any claim for loss by the emancipation of any slave, but all such debts and claims shall be held illegal and void.

GENERAL NEWS.

Chicago, June 8.

Reports being detained by the lines being down. The following is a summary of news of the 6th, 7th and 8th: The Fenian excitement raged furiously until the 6th, when President Johnson issued a proclamation directing Gen. Meade to employ the land and naval forces and militia to arrest the Fenian conspirators and prevent their unlawful proceedings.

The frontier was made into three military districts under Gen. W. F. Barry, Headquarters at Buffalo, Colonel Israel Hodges, Headquarters at Ogdensburg, and Major Augustus A. Gibson, Headquarters at St. Albans.

Sweeney arrived at St. Albans on the 6th, and the Fenian council of war decided upon an immediate advance movement in two columns from Malone, New York, and Franklin, Vermont.

A large seizure of Fenian arms was made in Northern New York and Vermont during the 6th, and Sweeney was arrested at St. Albans the same night, notwithstanding these and other obstructions the Franklin column moved early under the command of Gen. Spear, formerly Colonel of the 11th Penn. Cav., and numbering 10,000 men, tolerably well armed, and established themselves on Pigeon Hill, four miles north of St. Albans, that night to await reinforcements and collect supplies.

The Malone movement was prevented by the arrest of Gen. Murphy.

On the 5th, the men after rioting somewhat throughout the day at Malone, were finally quelled into subjection.

Reports up to last evening represent Spears' invasion as a failure—no reinforcements, men straggling back, and transportation being furnished from St. Albans.

Wm. R. Roberts, Fenian President, issued a proclamation on the 6th, counseling the Brotherhood to renewed exertion. He was arrested by U. S. Marshal Manning on the 7th, and arraigned before Commissioner Betts, when he assumed a defiant attitude, refusing to accept bail if coupled with parole. Roberts was then remanded to custody, and the hotels refusing to entertain him under arrest, fearing attempts at rescue, he was lodged in the Eldredge street jail. Numerous other arrests of leading Fenians were made on the 7th and 8th at Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis, and the furore of war was turned into indignation and despondency. Great indignation meetings have been held, denouncing President Johnson for playing false with the Fenians.

Col. O'Neill and other leaders of the Fort Erie expedition were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Parker at Buffalo on the 7th, and gave bonds to appear before the U. S. Commissioner at Canadaigua on the 19th inst. The Fenian privates of that expedition, to the number of 350, were released.

Sweeney was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Moyt at St. Albans yesterday, and remanded to custody in default of $20,000 bail.

The Fenian failure is made more complete from the fact that now here in Canada has there been the least show of sympathy, where riots and uprisings were expected.

The Canadian Parliament has assembled. The Governor's speech recommended the suppression of Fenian [illegible]. The Fenian prisoners now in the Canadian government have not yet been arraigned for trial.

San Francisco, June 5.

Otto L. Becker, for several years bookkeeper of the Pacific Glass Works, is under arrest on the charge of stealing some five thousand dollars of the company's funds. The books are now undergoing investigation. He is respectably connected, and it is thought his relatives will return the money embezzled by Becker and save him from the State Prison. Fast women were the cause.

Local and Miscellaneous.

pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic dispatches of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in the Territories.

We never display advertisements in double columns, as experience has taught us that they annoy the publisher of the paper containing them and us considerable annoyance and correspondence.

IN another column will be found the new law card of Messrs. Blair and Hoge.

THE Government contract for 150,000 pounds of flour advertised by Major Skelton, was awarded on Saturday at $6 84. We did not learn the name of the contractor.

From Washington there comes a gleam of hope. There is a prospect of the removal of His Craftiness, Governor Cummings from the Gubernatorial chair of this Territory. This is the next best thing to Colorado, to an Admission as a State.—Denver News.

THE suggestion of the Auburn (N. Y.) Advertiser and Union that Joseph Smith Jr., be appointed Governor of Utah has created much discussion in this city, and we may add, it finds favor with many Gentiles and anti-polygamy Mormons.

GOOD NEWS FOR RUSH VALLEY.—We learn by private advices from New York under date of 23d ultimo, that the machinery of two Rush Valley Silver Mining Companies has been shipped, and may be expected here about the 25th of next August. That's business.

WE notice that the collectors of internal revenue in different parts of the country are publishing statements of the amount collected. We would like to see a statement from our revenue officials.

THE recent rains have seriously injured many adobe houses in this city Huge piles of adobes have gracefully dissolved under the melting influences of June showers, and present to their owners forcible illustrations of departed hopes. It will require good substantial bricks to withstand the coming efforts of regenerating influences. The man who succeeds in establishing a brick yard in this city will realize a comfortable fortune in two or three years.

FROM OUR CALIFORNIA EXCHANGES.—ORIENTAL BANQUET.—A grand banquet, in honor of Hon. Anson Burlingame, T. S. Minister to China, and Gen. R. V. Van Valkenburg, U. S. Minister to Japan, which has been some weeks in preparation, was given last evening by the leading Chinese firms of the city—Tung Yee & Co., Chy Lung & Co., and Wing Wo Sing & Co.—at the Hang Heong Restaurant, on Dupont street next Clay. The hour fixed for the dinner was 6 P. M., and the company invited, including the leading merchants of San Francisco, numbered about sixty-five, all told. The restaurant was refurnished from ground to roof for the occasion, hung with rich embroideries in scarlet and gold, and decorated with flowers most profusely, no expense being spared by the liberal hearted hosts to do honor to the distinguished guests, and the banquet was on a scale of elegance and taste commensurate with the wealth and reputation of the hosts, who rank among the most reputable and responsible among the merchant princes of San Francisco.—Alta, 2d.

A PIONEER STEAMSHIP.—Seventeen years ago this morning the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer Panama entered the harbor of this then hamlet for the first time. She left New York on the 17th of February, 1849, touched at Rio de Janeiro, Valparaiso, Panama and San Diego. She came through the Straits of Magellan, and off Cape Pillar experienced a terrific gale which would have sent her to Davy Jones' locker but for the skill, courage and coolness of her commander, now Rear Admiral D. D. Porter. Of the Panama's passengers a number still reside in this State. Gwin, Weller, Thomas Butler King, Gen. Joe Hooker, Governor Low, Lieutenant Derby and many other distinguished personages came as passengers on the first trip of the Panama. The old craft is still in service, and is staunch as in the days of yore.—Alta, 4th.

WILLING TO WAIVE THE HONOR.—To be the last to leave the deck of a sinking ship, is ever the desire of a faithful captain; and to have been in the vanguard of an advance and the rearguard of a retreat, the boast of an ambitious military officer; but heroes are but men, after all, and sometimes tire of too much glory. We are informed that the French officers in Mexico have signed a petition to the French Emperor, to be allowed to leave the scene of their exploits for the last three or four years, in a body, and as soon as possible, not in detachments, as contemplated, each being willing to resign the honor of being last to quit the soil of the Empire, in favor of one of the Belgian mercenaries, or "any other man."—Alta, 4th.

The Alta says: "While we can justly be proud of the wool of California we have the satisfaction of knowing that we are contributing our share to the intellectual wealth of the world." This is the first time the Alta ever recognized the connection between wool and intellect.—Flag.

FARE TO NEW YORK.—The next steamer for Panama in the regular line, will be the Golden Age, on Saturday, June 9th, one day earlier than usual. She will connect at the Isthmus with the Costa Rica, for New York. Through rates of fare have been fixed as follows: First cabin, outside rooms, $232.25; do. inside rooms, $181.50; second cabin, $116; steerage, $65.50.—Bulletin, 4th.

Between Gross and Judge Titus yesterday, gave his opinion in the case of Rosenbaum vs. Great Salt Lake City. This was an appeal from Alderman Clinton, in the matter of the Liquor without a license.

It appears that the attorneys on both sides this case had been selected from a number of others, appealed from the same tribunal, and that the ruling upon the questions of law involved should determine all the other cases.

His Honor reviewed at length the City Charter, compared it with the charters of some other cities in the Union, then took up the exceptions that had been taken by the attorneys for the appellant, three of which he overruled, but sustained a portion of the fourth.

The city ordinance under which the prosecution of Mr. Rosenbaum was instituted, and subsequently fined and his establishment threatened to be closed as a nuisance, was read by the Court and, we are pleased to record, commented upon in the most caustic style all such illegal, and heretofore unheard of monopoly, (except in Utah.) The judgment of the Court below was then set aside.

By invocation of Counsel, the opinion of the Court was given in relation to Social and Literary Clubs. Upon this question the Judge remarked that Clubs for amusement, as well as for intellectual and physical improvement, had existed for over two centuries in Europe, and the organization of in our own country, and that neither the present nor any other ordinance that could be passed by the Council of this city could interfere with them, so long as they did not allow drunkenness, brawling, or that which would disturb the peace of the city.

We hope to give a more extended review of this decision in our next issue.

THE Wood contract at Camp Douglas was awarded, yesterday, to Thos. A. Janney at $13.65 per cord.
